Youngstown City School students Eric, James and Tamia Merchant appeared on Homework Express May 2 with host Kelly Stevens and teachers Kristy Fill (Girard) and Judy Moschella (Youngstown.) Avid HX viewers, they said they learned about the show through Moschella (Eric and James are two of her students) and posters at school. Just e-mail homeworkexpress@gmail.com if you're interested in receiving posters.

Student Submissions

Homework Express is offering another chance for student viewers to interact and participate with Homework Express. Students have a chance to have for their work to be aired on our show!

Producers are accepting short segments from students to be aired on future episodes of Homework Express. It's a great way to let everyone know what you're doing at your school, accomplishments of staff and students, or just how unique your school is!

Requirements and the necessary forms are available by visiting www.homeworkexpress.org.

Continued Opportunities

Are you going to have a science fair? Are you a teacher who loves the thrill of drag racing? Or is your drama club doing something really cool? Let Homework Express know!

We're always looking for teachers who are doing something different, unique students and fun events. Maybe we'll even send a HX Team out to get your school on TV!

All you have to do is let our producers know by e-mailing homeworkexpress@gmail.com.

HX Express Guests

Producers are currently looking for students to become directly involved with Homework Express by being on it! We're offering local students a chance to meet host Kelly Stevens, the show's teachers and even get to be on the show their selves!

It's a great way for students to see the work that goes into the making of television – perfect for any student involved with their high school news programs.

We're interested in meeting and featuring all kinds of unique students. If you know of anyone who'd be interested in being the next Express Guest – just contact producers at (330) 941-7247.

Just A Note...

Please take notice of the new office number for Homework Express – (330) 941-7247. The live studio line is still the same to receive calls during the show, Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4:30 p.m. Calls can be received by calling (330) 941-2030 locally and 1 (866) 941-2030 for long distance callers!
