First Five Shows Successful

Homework Express, northeast Ohio's new homework help television show, premiered locally on Sept. 20. It appeared on Time-Warner's Channel 9 in Youngstown, Time-Warner's Channel 16 in Trumbull County and on Armstrong's Channel 20 in Mahoning County. About 25 students have called and had their math and science questions answered on air, from Youngstown, Boardman and Warren!

There's also links to additional resources that our teachers have recommended for students and their families.

Thank You Prizes

Producers are searching for people and businesses who can provide various prizes and incentives for use in the Homework Express. These should be in the $10 range, and in a form that can be mailed in a #10 envelope (such as a gift certificate).

Teacher Profile:

Amy Burd

Warren G. Harding High School teacher Amy Burd is lending a hand on Homework Express. Originally from New York, she received a bachelor's degree in engineering from Pitt and a Master's of Education at YSU. She currently teaches Algebra II, Calculus and Physics. Having appeared in numerous theater productions, including Eve in "Garden of Eden," she is no stranger to being in the spotlight – or helping students!

Director Profile: Dr. Fred Owens

A telecommunications professor at YSU Fred Owens, Ph.D., is responsible for the creation of Homework Express. Owens currently leads Homework Express with the other producers as the show's project coordinator. Owens is a Youngstown native, and after receiving a bachelor's degree from Baldwin Wallace, he returned to the area. Now a resident of Austintown, Owens has taught at YSU for 30 years.
