HX Nominated for Emmy!

Homework Express has been nominated for an Emmy Nomination for the Broadcast Year 2005 by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, Cleveland Regional Chapter in the category of Children/Youth Program – Regularly Scheduled.

The winner of the award will be announced tonight (Saturday, Sept. 9) at the awards ceremony. To find out if the show wins, watch our first show of the season, next Tuesday Sept. 26. You can also find out by visiting our Website – www.homeworkexpres.org.

HX teachers will answer student questions live, on air, Tuesdays and Thursdays 4:30 – 5:30 p.m. Call (330) 941-2030 or toll free at 1 (866) 941-2030.

Cast Announced

Homework Express producers have announced the cast joining the show for the 2006-07 season. Host Kelly Stevens (HOT-101 FM host) will return again for the 2006-07 season. The teachers slated to appear on the show include Amy Burd, Judy Moschella and Kristy Fill – familiar faces from last season. Also joining them this year will be Joe Radza, who also did several shows last season. The newcomer will be teacher Christine Rohde.
