Spooktacular guests!

“Trick or Treat!” yelled seven various students on the October 30, Halloween edition of Homework Express as they walked across the set to meet Kelly Stevens on live TV.

Many students from throughout the viewing area were live in studio on Thursday’s HX to help celebrate the festivities of “the day of the dead.”

In addition to our added guests, HX featured another Numberland skit, interesting Ohio Lottery sponsored Shout Outs, and the viewers were also advised by many costumed students on important safety tips for trick or treating.

The set was furnished with festive decorations graciously donated by Mashorda’s County Gardens in Austintown and Gems Bridal and Floral in Boardman.

Homework Express would like to thank all who made this awesome edition possible, the businesses who helped out, the students, parents and teachers. We hope everyone had a safe and happy Halloween!

Shout Out candidates goal: help “Joe the math student”

In accordance with the November elections, we at Homework Express decided to take the concepts of voting and debate sessions and scale it down to something that middle school kids would understand.

The renowned “Shout Outs” sponsored by Ohio Lottery have been the prime time spot for our candidates running for the Shout Out President position.

Both “candidates” are senior members of the Telecommunications program at Youngstown State University and have been working on Homework Express for years. Tony Marr helps write the “Streaming Crew,” directs and produces HX, and is now running for the position of the Shout Out President, a job he will do “tirelessly.” Mike Moliterno also helps write various segments on Homework Express, directs and produces HX, and is the opponent candidate who vows to “reach across the camera” to help math students.

Tune into Homework Express for live updates on both Marr and Moliterno and place your votes by calling 1-866-941-2030. I’m writer Robyn Musgrove and I approve this message.

Homework Express has fun at the Y-M-C-A

Homework Express would like to say thank you to the YMCA of Youngstown for donating one of our viewers’ favorite prizes: a Metro Guest Pass. The students, with their Metro Guest Pass, are able to visit the YMCA and participate in many programs they have to offer.

The YMCA is one of the largest not-for-profit community service programs in the United States. The Y dates back to 1844 where it originated in London, England and has since grown into a huge success. In the United States alone, there are over 2,500 YMCAs and many more in over 120 other countries. Today, the Y has nearly 21 million members and over a half million volunteers across the country.

Thanks to their gracious offer, many of our HX viewers will be singing, “It’s fun to stay at the Y-M-C-A!”
